THE JEWELS CELEBRATE MARDI GRAS WITH KING CAKE AND CHAMPERS

On January 31st Laura Ahrons hosted a Carnival Gathering of the Jewels. A King Cake and Champagne Party was enjoyed at the Seiler Bar for the Jewels and perspective Jewels. A wonderful time was had during the festivities.

MARDI GRAS

Fat Tuesday celebrations found our Jewels and Fools spread far and wide throughout, not just the St John District, nor even Covington. Mardi Gras had revelers everywhere. Here is a small sampling of the revelry had by our members..

Carnival in Covington Parade Riders embarked on a three-hour tour (well slightly less time than that) around the City of Covington throwing themselves at Parade Goers, providing the young and old with precious beads.

MAD'S TIPS ON HOW TO BETTER ENJOY THE ST. PATRICK'S DAY PARADE

- Remember: a shot of green food coloring at the beginning of the day guarantees festive vomiting later
- If a man in green comes up and offers to let you "touch his shillelagh," don't assume he's with the parade
- Be sure to stretch before getting into a shoving match with a police horse
- "But...she was wearing a 'Kiss me I'm Irish' button" is not an accepted legal defense

- Porta-Pottys tend to be scarce — so be sure to hang on to that green plastic derby
- Avoid the vendor selling corned-beef-and-cabbage lattes
- As local politicians march by, keep your heckling in the holiday spirit. For instance, call him "Mayor O'Douchebag"
- Painting your face green is a great way to disguise yourself from the horse you got into a shoving match with last year

WE'RE ALL A WEE BIT IRISH ON ST PATRICK'S DAY

THE GUINNESS BEER WAS FLOWING AND THE KILTS WERE OUT. AS TRADITION, THE FOOLS WERE INVITED TO MARCH WITH THE CCC'S ST PATRICK'S DAY PARADE. OTHER FOOLS DECIDED ON THE IRISH CHANNEL PARADE. NO MATTER WHERE THE FOOLS AND JEWELS MADE IT A FOOLISHLY GOOD TIME.

ERIN GO BRAGH, IS THE ANGLICISATION OF AN IRISH LANGUAGE PHRASE, ÉIRINN GO BRACH, AND IS USED TO EXPRESS ALLEGIANCE TO IRELAND. IT IS MOST OFTEN TRANSLATED AS "IRELAND FOREVER."
